out Boston dinners of the 7th Commandment & in a few days I hopes to be with him. He goes as prom-

With due respect & in great haste. Yr brother

J R M Dowall

Mrs Sumner & Family
Jo 18 Pemaquid Pl.
Boston Mass

J. R. Mc Dowall
New York March 5–
1834

21

New York March 5. 1834

Br Phelps

My business will not allow me to visit you at this early part of the month. Perhaps I may come on to Boston in about two weeks or ten days by the way of New Haven Hartford &c stopping a day in each place to see if some money can be raised to carry on the investigations.

The Paint, Book &c. &c. mystery & iniquity is the all important point to which strict & universal attention should be given & one vast exposure of every thing appertaining thereto be made at one & the same time. But more of this hereafter. Brothels are trifles compared to the other & I do hope you & your friends will regard it in that light.

I send you a man, Mr J. L. Burrows who is capable of writing